The Six Components of the Missionary Task include:

- 1) Entry
 - Entry (Access) involves knowing the people we are trying to reach for Christ. It involves being true to ourselves. And it involves communicating with the people most effectively.
- 2) Evangelism
 - Evangelism is the proclamation of the gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit with the aim of persuading people to repent and believe in Christ.
- 3) Discipleship
 - Discipleship involves baptism, teaching and training believers to obey all of Christ's commands. When possible, it should involve partnership with the local church.
- 4) Healthy Church Formation
 - It involves 12 biblical characteristics like evangelism, discipleship, membership, leadership, preaching and teaching, ordinances, worship, fellowship, prayer, accountability and discipline, giving and mission.
- 5) Leadership Development
 - Leadership development consists of three essentials:
 - 1) Be (characteristics of biblical leadership, e.g., faithfulness) 2 Timothy 2:2

- 2) Know (equipped theologically and contextually)
- 3) Do (able to teach and train others)
- 6) Exit to Partnership
 - Missionaries have freedom to leave a location to serve elsewhere when a healthy church is planted and reproduces disciples of Jesus.
